Chapter - 18

Travelogue of a young girl

I was thirteen years old when I travelled to Fiji Islands with my parents. It is a country in the South Pacific close to Australia. The main Islands are Viti Levu and Vanua Leva. Suvu is the capital of the country.

Fiji is a beautiful island, with pristine beaches, clean air and bright sunshine. It is a tropical paradise, with plenty of greenery that attracts tourists from all over the world.

Fiji is a diverse country with Polynesians, Indians and some people of mixed origin. The natives are friendly and easy going. The official language is English, though Fijian and Hindi are widely spoken.

I enjoyed traveling around Fiji and especially remember a boat trip where I got to see marine life. I also enjoyed swimming in the ocean and tried to learn surfing. The coral reefs are a beautiful sight.

How old was the girl during her travelogue?
What are the most attractive places of Fiji?
Which city is the capital of Fiji?
Which are the main islands of Fiji?
Is Fiji a polluted place?
Which is the official language of Fiji?
Which are the other main languages of Fiji?
What kind of people are of Fiji?
Which special trip the girl enjoyed the most?
What did the girl tried to learn as a sport?
What kind are the coral reefs?
Where is the country Fiji situated?
What attracts the tourists more from all over the world?
With whom did the young girl travelled to Fiji?
How does she liked the place?
